| Overview | Goal is to address every instance of sexual violence by removing inequitable or hostile environments. The Office on Civil Rights (OCR) issued additional guidance on sexual assault in 2011 and 2014. | 1990 legislation that requires colleges and universities receiving federal funds to: track and report crimes on campus property, have safety policies, and inform the campus of risks to public safety. | 2013 amendment to the Clery Act that is intended to complement existing Title IX legislation and Office on Civil Rights' guidance for the response to sexual violence on campus. | Bolstered and expanded 2012 legislation pertaining to the response and prevention of sexual violence on Connecticut's campuses. |
| Accountability | Requires all reported incidents of sexual violence be reported to and investigated by the institution's Title IX officer. Students must have access to an institutional disciplinary procedure to address sexual assault. | Requires schools to publicly report crimes on campus property annually, including sexual assaults. Requires schools to notify the campus community when the safety of the community is in question. | Expands on the Clery Act to include reporting on domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Clarifies minimum standards for institutional disciplinary procedures covering the above topics. | Aspects of programming, response, and training must be reported to the Higher Education Committee of the Connecticut General Assembly on an annual basis. Includes both students and staff in training and response. |
| Response | Schools must take prompt and immediate action to end the sexual violence, eliminate the inequitable/hostile environment, and to ensure that there is no retaliation against students who report sexual assaults. OCR has provided much guidance on the institutional disciplinary process, students rights, and the role of schools in addressing and preventing sexual assault. | N/A | Schools must notify students in writing of all of their reporting options, including not reporting. Students must have access to an equitable disciplinary process. Students must be given contact information for on and off-campus resources available to them. Students must be able to change academic, living, transportation, or working situations to avoid a hostile environment. Students can receive no-contact directives or restraining orders. Campus authorities must assist students with reporting to local law enforcement if desired by the student. | Students must receive concise, written notification of their options after reporting, including reasonable changes to "academic living, campus transportation or working situations". Each institution must have a Campus Resource Team (CRT) which meets once per semester. Training, awareness and prevention programming requirements must be met for: all students and staff, members of the CRT, Title IX officers, campus police/security officers and campus judicial board hearing officers. Each institution must establish a MOU with community-based sexual assault and domestic violence programs. |
| Prevention & Education | Encourages repeated training and education on sexual violence, reporting options, and prevention and bystander intervention. | N/A | Primary prevention and awareness programs must be provided to incoming students and new employees. Students should receive education on bystander intervention. | Annual awareness and prevention programming for all students and staff must take place, including prevention and bystander intervention training that addresses the campus culture. |

The Consortium is a space to share information, strategies, and resources in order to strengthen and support each campus community's work to end sexual violence. The Consortium is comprised of staff and administrators from Connecticut colleges and universities, community-based sexual assault crisis counselor/advocates, and others who work to improve the response to and prevention of sexual violence in campus communities. The Consortium is coordinated by Connecticut Alliance to End Sexual Violence. As a part of this collaboration, members not only have access to trainings, information, and best practices pertaining to sexual violence on campuses, but they are also part of a statewide community of colleges and universities engaged in addressing and preventing sexual violence.
