

Transforming Justice:

The Experience of Violence and the Work of Healing in Communities of Color

June 23, 2016, 9:30am - 3:30pm

- Ballroom at the Holiday Inn
- 100 East River Drive,
- East Hartford, CT 06108

Tiq and Kim Katrin Milan will lead an in-depth look at the experience of sexual violence, emphasizing Black, Native and Latino LGBTQ people. From systemic and state violence, the notable absence of compassionate care options to intra-community violence, we will take a multi-pronged approach to existing narratives around Queer and Trans people of color. Including references to disability justice, youth-led initiatives and women centered methods, we will disrupt pathologies often ascribed to these groups.

TIQ & KIM KATRIN MILAN

Tiq Milan is a writer, journalist, and regular on-air contributor to Huff Post Live and various MSNBC news outlets. He was formerly the Editor-in-Chief of IKONS Magazine, an LGBTQ pop culture magazine. He is currently the Co-Chair for the LGBTQ taskforce of the National Association of Black Journalists.

Kim Katrin Milan is an award-winning and internationally acclaimed artist, human rights educator and writer. She is the Co-Founder and Executive Director of The People Project, and Co-Owner of Glad Day Bookshop, the oldest LGBTQ bookstore in the world.

This event is free and open to the public. Registration begins at 9am. To learn more or to register, go to: EndSexualViolenceCT.org

CONNECTICUT ALLIANCE TO END SEXUAL VIOLENCE
Support. Advocate. Prevent.

formerly CONNSACS

